On the Table: Il Verdi Three Course Tasting Menu Offers Fine Dining Value

Dinner guests can sample the restaurant's signature Italian dishes for $35 per person

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ (October 26, 2011) –Eating well doesn't have to cost a fortune. Il Verdi, the upscale northern Italian dining experience at Tropicana Casino & Resort, now offers a three course tasting menu for just $35 per person plus tax and gratuity.

“From the first-rate service to the spectacular food, everyone loves a luxurious meal at a world-renowned restaurant. The Tasting Menu at Il Verdi delivers an amazing dining experience, without the pricey tab at the end of the meal,” said Tony Rodio, president and chief executive officer of Tropicana.

The Tasting Menu at Il Verdi offers guests a choice of Insalata Caprese (crisp spinach leaves with gorgonzola cheese, chopped egg and crispy pancetta) or Insalata di Spinaci al Gorgonzola (house-made mozzarella with plum tomatoes and fresh basil) for the first or Primi course.

Dinner guests will then choose one of eight options for the entrée or Secondi course. With selections that include Penne Bolognese, Twin 4 oz. Filet Mignons, Potato Gnocchi, Pan Seared Twin Organic Pork Chops, Grilled Salmon topped with Jumbo Lump Crabmeat, Flounder Milanese, and two Italian-style chicken dishes, there is truly something to please every palate. Dessert options offer up a difficult choice of Tiramisu or Amaretto Cheesecake.

A gourmet staple at the Tropicana since Tropicana opened 30 years ago; Il Verdi is located on the Casino Level of the North Tower. The atmosphere combines the elegance of old world Italy with the relaxed feel of a seaside restaurant. Il Verdi's wine list has received the prestigious Award of Excellence from Wine Spectator magazine, indicating a true dedication to wine.
