The Award-Winning Musical Comedian Returns to the Tropicana Casino & Resort Showroom

Hit Show Will Run in Atlantic City's First Broadway-Style Theatre, March 26 - June 22

Atlantic City, NJ – (January 19, 2012) Superstar musical comedian, Stephen Sorrentino will return to Atlantic City in his critically acclaimed show, Voices In My Head for a three-month exclusive engagement, March 26 - June 22. The spotlight will be on Sorrentino for 6 shows each week in the legendary 2,000-seat Tropicana Casino & Resort Showroom. Voices In My Head is a winning combination of a Las Vegas stage-show, classic TV variety hour, and high-energy concert and features: showgirls, dancers, extravagant costumes and hilarious comedy routines. Audiences of all ages appreciate Voices in My Head as Sorrentino's musical impressions travel expertly from Frankie Valle and Lady Gaga to Cher and the stars of Motown! They may find themselves called upon for the audience participation improv routine where his "Second City" roots shine.

"I have been humbled by the overwhelming response to my show and am excited to open the show in the Tropicana Casino & Resort Showroom," Sorrentino said. "It is truly rewarding to entertain thousands of fans each week with a show that I literally wrote, scored and produced from the... "voices in my head!"

About Stephen Sorrentino

Throughout his career, musical comedian Stephen Sorrentino has brought audiences to hysterics with his quick-witted humor & spot-on mimicry. Often referred to as a “comedic tour-de-force,” Sorrentino is a true showman who has raised the bar as a comedian, singer and impressionist. Hailed by Daily Variety for his “hilarious, show stealing gusto,” Sorrentino has shared the stage with superstars such as Patti LaBelle, Dennis Miller, Larry “The Cable Guy”, Dana Carvey and Hollywood icon Debbie Reynolds. Continuing the Springsteen family tradition, this cousin of singer Bruce Springsteen, has been crowned Las Vegas’ “Male Entertainer of The Year,” 3 years standing and headlined sold-out shows at the Riviera, MGM and Paris Hotels on Sin City’s infamous Strip.
