Tropicana Announces Plans to Expand Tango's Lounge

Plans include larger space, relocated stage, dance area and more

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ (December 28, 2011) – Tropicana Casino and Resort has announced plans to broaden the property's nightlife options even further with the expansion of Tango's Lounge. The expanded space will include over 30 additional seats, a new dance area, and a relocated stage which will be adjacent to the future location of Boogie Nights.

"Just off the heels of announcing that Boogie Nights' will locate to Tropicana, we're thrilled to announce the upgrades in Tango's Lounge," said Tony Rodio, president and chief executive officer of Tropicana. "We're committed to bringing even more excitement, more entertainment options to the property that will appeal to an even broader clientele." Rodio added.

Tango's Lounge currently customers a place to meet and mingle, have a cocktail and enjoy live entertainment with lounge singers and acts that offer a wide range of musical genres and live D.J.'s. Several vocalists have appeared and "discovered" in Tango's at the beginning of their careers, perfecting their act and sound and going on to recording and performance contracts.

"The upgrade to Tango's has been in huge demand by customers for quite some time. Over 1,000 square feet of new space will be built and ready by the end of first Quarter 2012." Tony Rodio continued.

Tango's Lounge is located just off the entrance to the Quarter and the main casino floor in the Tropicana's south tower.
