May 17th Parade on the AC Boardwalk Celebrating the Opening of Havana Rooftop Slots at Tropicana Casino & Resort

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ (May 8, 2008) - At 1:00pm on Saturday, May 17, Tropicana Casino & Resort will celebrate its opening of Havana Rooftop Slots with a parade on the Atlantic City Boardwalk. The parade will begin at 1:00 pm on New Jersey Avenue on the Atlantic City Boardwalk and will arrive at the Tropicana for a final celebration at approximately 1:45pm. Atlantic City Mayor Scott Evans, Grand Marshall, will lead the parade followed by the Edgardo Cintron and The Azura Band, a six-piece Latin Salsa band performing on a decorative float, Oakcrest High School marching band, 30 classic cars, string bands, dancers, entertainers, Mummies, Best of Broadway cast members and more!

Havana Rooftop Slots is a 3,000 square-foot raised section of the Tropicana's casino that has been completely transformed into an all-encompassing, Cuban-themed slot environment. Havana Rooftop Slot guests will be surrounded with the sights, sounds, smells, and tastes of Old Havana, Cuba. Authentic Cuban music, vivid artwork, specialty drinks and coffees, festive lighting and the faintest aromas of citrus will entice the senses while players enjoy the latest in slot technology and entertainment.
