Country's leading piano man, Phil Vassar, will perform at Tropicana Casino & Resort, August 28

ATLANTIC CITY, NJ (July 31, 2009) – It will be “Just Another Day in Paradise” for Phil Vassar fans at Tropicana. Tropicana Casino & Resort will host Phil Vassar in the Tropicana Showroom on Friday, August 28 at 9 p.m.

Vassar has proven himself to be the hardest working man in country music and hits like “Just Another Day in Paradise,” “Six-Pack Summer,” “Love is A Beautiful Thing,” and “This is My Life” have provided him with a loyal and widespread fan base.

His penchant for pure musical escapism combined with his introspective and personal touches has set a distinct tone for his albums and created a unique artistic expression that continues to reach his audience. Vassar’s latest album Prayer of a Common Man reflects his devotion to family, home and has a more contemplative and emotional tone. Growing up in a small, Southern town, Vassar appreciates life’s many blessings and can relate to values and aspirations of the “common man,” which he mirrors in his music.

Tickets to see Phil Vassar on Friday, August 28 at 9 p.m. at the Tropicana are $25 to $50 and on sale now through www.ticketmaster.com, 1-800-745-3000 or at the Tropicana Box Office.
